

The Sistine Chapel: History & Meaning

Monday, June 19 - 7:30 PM

Presented by Charles M. Rosenberg Ph. D.

Professor of art history from the University of Notre Dame

The Knights of Columbus Reilley Council 10668 and the Notre Dame Club of Hilton Head will co-sponsor a free lecture on Monday, June 19th and will feature guest speaker Charles M. Rosenberg Ph. D. , professor of art history from the University of Notre Dame. An acknowledged authority on Italian Renaissance and Baroque art, Dr. Rosenberg has held several National Fellowships and has received International Awards.

Dr. Rosenberg will discuss the creation of this masterpiece of Renaissance art which took over seventy years to build and involved artists as diverse as Botticelli, Raphael and Michelangelo. As part of this Hesburgh lecture, he will also explore the meaning of the many messages contained in the art and the controversy surrounding its restoration.

The public and all members of the parish are cordially invited to attend this K of C Social Meeting. It will be held in the St. Francis By The Sea Family Center, 45 Beach City Road, and will start sharply at 7:30 pm. There is no

A FREE PROGRAM Sponsored by
The Knights of Columbus Reilley Council 10668
and the Notre Dame Club of Hilton Head

